WILL DON TAMMANY'S TOTEM.

Famous Captives to Be Adopted at To-Night's Primaries.

Appointments and Assignments of the Board of Police Justices.

Primaries will be held to-night in all the Assembly Districts of the city for the election of delegates to the Tammany and General Committee on Organization and also for the election of district committees.

There will be 2,008 members of the Tammany General Committee elected, the smallest number, 92, coming from the Eleventh District, and the largest, 292, from the Twenty-third District.

The names of hundreds of recruits to the organization will be on the new Committee lists, including many old County Democracy war horses and some Republicans who have deserted the G. O. P.

But one change in the leadership of an Assembly District is noted. Ex-Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Belmont will succeed Judge John McQuade in the Twenty-second.

One of the surprises which the primaries are likely to afford will be the taking of the office of Barney Harbeck, the political scoundrel of the Eighth District, with Henry Lewis and other of his old-time associates.

With Brodsky, Meyer and Engel in the regular Republican ranks, and Bourke, Krass and Lowry in Tammany Hall political chivalries in the city will see much to make them smile.

Among those who will join Tammany in the sixteenth district are ex-Justice William H. Kelly and Contractor Edward Dwyer.

POLICE COURT ASSIGNMENTS.
The assignments of the judges for the year 1902 cast some doubt on the story that Andrew J. White, who has been a lodger ever since Nov. 22, will not be reappointed by Mayor Grant.

Justice White has been assigned today with Justice Smith and Justice O'Brien to the court of special sessions for the first six months of the year, and to the Municipal Court for the next six months.

It is argued that Mr. Croker would not have agreed to his being reappointed, had he known that there are many political jobs which he would be obliged to do, and that the Mayor would be likely to make an appointment for him to the court of special sessions.

The Board of Police Justices will meet to-night to consider the reports of the police courts for the year.

DROVE BEFORE THE ENGINE, WAITING FOR GOLD SHIELDS.

Four May Die Because of a Coachman's Recklessness.

Three New York Ladies and a little girl are in a precarious condition today at St. John's Hospital, Long Island City, through injuries received yesterday as the result of the alleged carelessness of a driver who was taking them home from a funeral at caviary cemetery.

The sufferers are Mrs. Catharine Kahl and her sixteen-year-old daughter, Maudie, of 104 East one Hundred and Ninety-two street, and Mrs. Mary Moran and her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Seary, of 204 East one Hundred and Sixty-sixth street, who were in a coach driven by William Sullivan, of Eleventh street.

As they traveled the Coenties avenue crossing of the Long Island Railroad at Bliss street and the coach was struck by the front end of a freight train, which had just passed. The flagman and spectators insist that both coaches were stopped, and that Sullivan whipped up his horse and drove the coach through the gates and fairly broke himself and the occupants of his coach into the highway.

The broken gates tend to sustain their story. Without warning the flying train was upon the coaches. The horses were killed instantly and the coach and the other coach capsized was carried along on the pilot until it struck a post, when it was slithered into the gutter.

The injuries of the women and children are reaching a serious stage. Mrs. Moran, of Thirty-third street, the driver, was thrown from the coach, badly injured. Dr. A. J. G. Weston was under the influence of liquor.

TWO WOMEN IN A SMASH-UP.
Mrs. Struck's Rig Broke Down and Her Gray Horse Went Astray.

Away from a set of harness with the letters on the harness and a gray horse were awaiting a claimant today in the lower stable at one Hundred and Fifth street and Tenth avenue.

Thomas O'Connor, of 122 East one Hundred and Eighty street, turned the horse over to P. J. Sullivan, of the Thirty-second street, last night. He said that he received them from two ladies at the corner of Fourth avenue and one Hundred and Eighty street, who told him that the woman had been smashed in an accident.

O'Connor had been told to deliver them to the stable at 122 East one Hundred and Eighty street and Fifth street, but when he reached there no one was on hand to receive them.

About noon Charles Struck, of 207 1/2 Eighth street, called at the stable at Eighth avenue and Fifth street, and a lady friend, he said, had been driving when their horse was smashed with a car and that horse told him that the animal had been astray.

She Refuses to Collect It Pending a Decision in Her Suit.

Mrs. Laura V. Appleton was again on the stand today in her suit to recover a one-fifth interest in the site of the Plaza Hotel, formerly belonged to her father, John Anderson.

She said she thought that she had received her share of $50,000 by dividing her interest in the Plaza Hotel, which she said was $100,000, among her children.

Her father, John Anderson, died in 1882, leaving her a one-fifth interest in the site of the Plaza Hotel, which she said was $100,000, among her children.
